

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 20, 2010

Select Artists Makes It 8 – In – A – Row
Producing MLB All-Star On-Field Entertainment

SCOTTSDALE, AZ – For the eighth consecutive year, Major League Baseball called on Select Artists Associates to produce the on-field musical entertainment for the 81st annual All Star Game Festivities in Anaheim.

On Monday, July 12, 2010, Grammy Award winning band Train lead-off the live ESPN coverage of the State Farm Home Run Derby, at Angel Stadium with the appropriately named, “Calling All Angels”, followed by current chart-climber, “Hey, Soul Sister”.

On Tuesday, July 13, 2010, from the hit FOX Television Show, Glee, Amber Riley sang “Beautiful” a song she performed on Glee during the “All-Stars Among Us” Tribute prior to the 81st Annual All-Star Game on the new circular stage.

SAA’s patented field-friendly roll-on stages & audio systems, and experienced production teams have become an MLB staple for the past eight All-Star Games including; Anaheim (Train), St. Louis (David Cook), New York (3DoorsDown), San Francisco (Counting Crows), Pittsburgh (Big & Rich), Detroit (Uncle Kracker, Alter Bridge), Houston (Clay Walker), Chicago (LIVE).

Select Artists Associates is a national sports & entertainment production company, headquartered in Scottsdale, AZ, with an East Coast office in Tampa, FL.

Photos attached:

1. Train lead singer, Pat Monahan with SAA President, Charles Johnston
2. Glee star Amber Riley with MLB’s Joe Fitzgerald, SAA’s VP of Production Ed Jones, Executive Producer of Glee Dante DiLoreto, and SAA President Charles Johnston.

For more information contact Joe Castor at 480.994.0471 or joe@selectartists.com. Also visit www.selectartists.com

